I love broccoli, even my children love it. This recipe can make broccoli the main course, it has bacon, so the meat lovers will like it too or serve it as a side dish.

Broccoli Cheese Casserole: Bring to a boil, 2 quarts of water with 1 T. salt. Add 2 pounds broccoli florets (about 8 cups small). Boil for 3 to 5 min. (until tender but firm). Grate 8 oz. cheddar cheese, set aside. Meanwhile, cook and drain 2 strips of bacon, cut 1/4 inch pieces until done but not crisp.

Whisk 5 eggs, add 1/3 cup flour, 1/2 cup cream and 1 cup whole milk. Add 2 tsp. Dijon mustard, 1/2 tsp. salt and pepper to taste. Add 1/3 of the cheese. Butter a 2 1/2 quart dish. Place the broccoli florets in the casserole dish, sprinkle with 1/3 of the cheese, add bacon pieces. Pour the egg mixture over the broccoli, moving the broccoli pieces a bit. Top with remaining cheese.

Bake 425° for 20-45 until set. Makes five to 10 servings.

Knitting: The adult knitting class is today, Jan. 26 at 4 p.m. Bring your knitting needles and yarn.

K. Grubham returns from LDS mission

By Mary Orr

Kyle Grubham, 21, recently returned from a two-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Detroit Metropolitan area.

"I basically spent two years sharing messages about Jesus Christ with the people there and also providing service and offering assistance in really any way that I could," he said.

While there, some of the activities Mr. Grubham participated in included helping in soup kitchens and assisting elderly people with chores and errands.

Mr. Grubham graduated from Kootenai High School in 2008 and is the son of Tim and Carey Grubham of St. Maries.

He plans to work for his father, who owns Stillwater Electric, before attending college for electrical engineering.

Vehicles with a gross vehicle weight of 10,000 lbs. or more will be restricted to 30 mph beginning Thursday morning.

The restriction will be in place until further notice.

Wellock sells SM practice

By Mary Orr

Lloyd Wellock has sold his St. Maries accounting practice.

"I'm old enough to be retiring," he said. "It's just time to cut back a little bit."

Mr. Wellock will continue to do tax preparation in Coeur d'Alene.

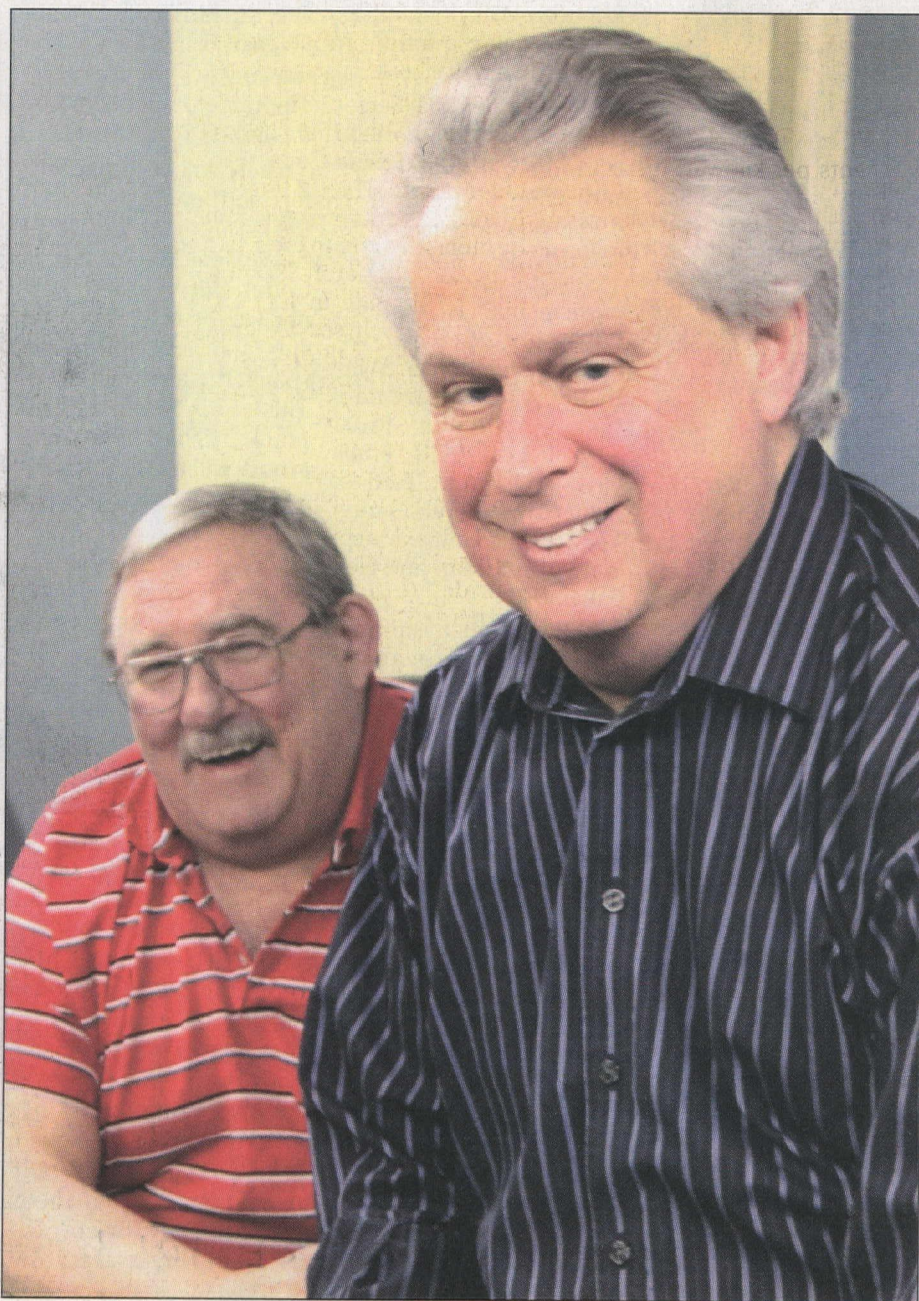

After running his accounting firm in St. Maries for 27 years, he has sold it to Decoria Maichel and Teague of Spokane.

Warren Erickson, a manager for the firm, will run the St. Maries office. He describes it as a "good fit" for his company.

"His practice matches up exactly with the work I do," Mr. Erickson said. "After we had a chance to meet, I also found that we had a lot of the same philosophies and values."

Mr. Erickson has worked as a certified public accountant (CPA) for more than 20 years. He previously worked in a regional office in Spokane before starting his own practice. After five years on his own, he joined another firm in order to be able to offer a wider range of services to his clients.

Mr. Erickson resides in Spokane with his wife and has two sons, ages 19 and 25, and a 90-pound boxer.
